Dear Families,

I have led two parent Google Meets this week (Grade 6 on Monday and Grade 7 today); I will be leading one more for 8th grade tomorrow night, (Thursday) at 7pm.

The purpose of these Meets is to gauge parent interest and practice using this medium of communication. I realize that many of you have been unable to sign up so I recorded a Screencast to summarize the salient points that I am sharing in these sessions with families.

My plan is to lead another series of video conferences next week; more information about the dates/times will be sent out over this weekend. I will not impose a restriction to the number of participants this time so the live meetings are more accessible to all who are interested in participating. Be well everyone...please email me if I can help answer any questions. Sincerely,
John
